Sub:- Objection Memo on T.A.Vrs. for January 1950 - Daily Allowance drawn by Ex-Chief Forest Officer of Erstwhile Sandur Government - (Sri L.Srinivasa Murthi) - Treating him as Grade V Officer for purposes of M.T.A.Rules - Orders requested.

Sri L.Srinivasa Murthi, Ex-Chief Forest Officer of the Erstwhile Sandur Government was a retired Gazetted Officer of the Forest Department of the Mysore Government. He was taken into the Sandur State Forest Service on a contract system, governed by the rules of the Mysore Government (Forest Department).

Sri L.Srinivasamurthi is no longer in Service now. The rate of daily allowance allowed to this Officer (when he was in Sandur Service) was Rs.5-5-4 per diem according to the Mysore Service Regulations, but as he was not included in the category of Grade V Officers in the Govt. Memo. 9048-C.S.R. dated 18-3-1950, the Accountant General Madras in his T.M.(States) 15-124/50-51/62 dated 21-6-1951 (Copy enclosed) had opined that specific orders of Government for allowing him T.A. at the rates applicable to Grade V Officers under M.T.A.Rules were necessary. I therefore request that Sri L.Srinivasamurthi ® may be included in the category of Grade V Officers for

He was taken into the Sandur State Forest Service on a contract system, governed by the rules of the Mysore Government. Sri Srinivasamurthy is no longer in service.
